Dear Doctor

Went to Brighton yesterday, saw Ray Freeman, got extra details, wrote the enclosed obituary, turned copy in to Trentonian & other to Intelligencer with result enclosed clipping in last night.

Now feel we are not neglecting our departed members.

Was there an obit in Napanee papers for Mrs Annie Davis? I would like copy for scrap book

I am sure the Nancy should have been Nancy Ann or Ann Nancy, who married Thomas Flagler.

Tracing The Roblin Family

11 August 1972.

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth and final instalment of a series of articles on the Roblin family lineage compiled by Loral Wannamaker, widely known county genealogist.

The fourth ROBLIN mentioned was—

Philip Roblin — Loyalist in the struggle for Independence in America and he was at Sorel, Quebec during the winter of 1783 with his wife and one son over 10, two sons over six years and two daughters under six years of age (Haldimand's Papers.)

Philip Roblin — wife with three sons over 10 years and two daughters under six years. (Return of disbanded troops and Loyalists Adolphustown 1784.)

Philip Roblin — part lots No. 24 and 25 concession No. 4 (Owen Sr. was on other half of these).

Philip Roblin — Claim on British Government in February of 1788. He said his old home was at Smith's Cove in Orange County, N.Y. and here he had 15 acres of which 1/10 of an acre had a grist mill and saw mill on it. This property came to his wife from her father Garret Miller and had been in his possession six months. Philip also had a lease on 150 acres for six years, from Philip Livingstone on which he had made improvements. He had four horses, one yoke of oxen, six cows and 15 sheep with 35 bee hives. These lands came to his wife on the death of her father by will and were worth £5 York per acre. He was in the Barrack employment and staid till the evacuation then came to this country, now lives on Bay of Quinte.

Produces Certificate from Elihu Marven Commissioner of Sequestration, that he seized the property of claimant for use of the State, to wit. Farm, horses and sheep.

Produces affidavit sworn before Peter Vanalstine at the Bay of Quinte by Nicholas Wessels to claimant's Property nearly as stated above by claimant. Also same from George Galloway sworn before W. R. Crawford at Cataragui. (Bureau of Archives 1904 Claims).

Two miles west of Paul Huff's where meetings on Hay Bay were held, lived a widow with her four sons and four daughters. Philip Roblin, her husband, died in 1788. Their son John Roblin was elected twice to the early parliament at York. The first time he was disqualified because he was a local preacher and he died after his second election to office. On the list of subscribers to Hay Bay Church, the largest gift was by the widow Elizabeth Roblin £12, Halifax, currency. (Playter's History of Methodism in Canada and Dr. Canniff sett. of U.C.)

Elizabeth Roblin — the widow of Philip appears above on the Church roll of 1792 but she is not on the Muster Roll of 1794 of Adolphustown. Therefore it appears she had married a widower, John Canniff, who had three daughters, and they were in turn blessed with three children, Daniel 1795; Phoebe 1797; and Joseph 1799. John Canniff purchased land in 1806 and with his family removed in 1807 from Adolphustown to what later became Cannifton. Elizabeth (Roblin) Canniff was reported dead in 1815 and buried on the hill in Cannifton. (Playter's History of Methodism in Canada and Dr. Canniff sett. of U.C.) (I find no stone here for her, but her name is on her son's memorial stone in Belleville cemetery as having died — June 6th, 1815 aged 60 years, 9 months and 27 days.

1. Levi Roblin and (1) Mary Shortt, (2) Elizabeth Osborne, issue by No. 1, six children; issue by No. 2, five children.

The fifth child of Levi and Mary was James Platt Roblin who married Deborah Kotchapaw and had issue of six children and the first of these, Rodman Palen Roblin 1853-1937 married Adelaide DeMill. He went west and entered politics, became Premier of Manitoba and later was Sir Rodman P. Roblin, K.C. M.G. His son, Charles Dufferin Roblin, had a son who also became Premier of Manitoba, the Hon. Duff Roblin, who resigned as Premier of Manitoba to run for leader of National Conservative party and lost out.

The fourth child of Philip Roblin II and Prudence Platt, John P. (Palen) Roblin, bachelor, 1799-1874 married Nancy Langhorn Conger. He was, for a good number of years, a very well known member of the Old Reform Party of Upper Canada. He sat in the Legislature both before and after the Mackenzie Rebellion. I believe he served 16 years or more and it is said he was defeated in 1837. He was re-elected by a good majority at the next election and was later appointed Registrar of Prince Edward County and continued in that office until he died in 1874. (Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte.)

The seventh child of Philip Roblin II, Owen Roblin, 1806-1903 and Hulda S. Conger.

Having finished his education from Jonathan Greely, he proceeded to Ameliasburgh where he took up 400 acres of land from his father, Lot No. 76 and 77. These lots were located on either side of the road from Rednersville and at the foot of the Fingerboard Hill. In 1838 he traded or exchanged lot 76 for John B. Way's lot 81 where on was located Way's Mills, a hamlet of a number of homes, an ashery, a store and Way's Mills Post Office, and sawmill. (Picton Registry Office). Owen Roblin very soon began to build a large stone mill on top of the hill with saw and carding mills. This became known as Roblins Mills but is officially Ameliasburgh Post Office.

The mill became unsafe after many years of idleness and was taken down and rebuilt at Black Creek Pioneer Village, where it is in operation at times.

Owen Roblin built the lovely stone house about opposite the mill where the Salvation Army Camp is located and he also built just a little to the west, the fourth round house in the County for his son Edward who was married in 1861.

The 10th child of Philip Roblin II, Philip Roblin III, 1814-1899 and Elizabeth Bogart:

On the death of Philip Roblin II, his sons, Levi and Philip Roblin III became proprietors of the Roblins Mills of Green Point. There were three mills on this fall of water into the Long Reach and at the foot of the bay there were shipping docks and shipbuilding yards along with a store and bake shop and one or two homes. Mr. Derwood Cole told me Caleb Roblin lived in the house now standing at foot of the hill and that Levi Roblin lived beside the school on the crossroad to James Platt Roblin farm.

I have read where Philip Roblin II, after the log house, built a large frame house on top of the hill on the south side of the road, known as the Red House. His son, Philip Roblin III, later built the lovely stone house on the north side of road now occupied by Mr. Chant. Adolphus Roblin, to my knowledge, occupied the stone house and his son Ormond Roblin who lives in U.S.A. visits here regularly in the summer.

Half way up the hill on the west side of this mill creek we find a small cemetery not very well kept where at least two Roblins are buried. A stone for Philip Roblin II — and his wife, Prudence Platt, and a stone for Caleb Roblin, the son of the above, and — others of the family.

The second son of Phillip Roblin U.E., John Roblin 1774-1813 and wife Mary Moore, issue nine children:

This is John Roblin, twice elected to Parliament, also a local preacher. His name has been used on a number of occasions as the U.E. Ancestor of a Roblin, which is not correct, as I have his petition for land as a son of a U.E. He was also suspended from the U.E. list, he being the son of a U.E.

John had a son, David, born 1812, less than a year old when his father died. He moved to Napanee when about 20 years old, married Pamela Hawley. He entered business and later was elected to Parliament as a Baldwin Reformer from 1854 to 1861 and died 1863. His son Marshall Perry Roblin was Registrar of Lennox and Addington for many years. David Roblin built a large brick residence at the east end of Napanee on the hill which is still known as Roblins Hill, many descendants in this area and west.

John Roblin's daughter, Matilda Roblin, was one of the young ladies lost in the Hay Bay drowning tragedy of August 29th, 1819.

The third son of Phillip Roblin U.E., Owen P. Roblin, 1774-1845 and wife Mary Dulmage, issue 12 children.

Owen P. settled on lot 73, 1st Concession of Ameliasburgh, Crown Pat., 5th March 1804 and just a little east of Rednersville. The Roblin brothers, Ross and Rae, of Roblin's Dairy and their families, are still on this land.

The fourth son of Phillip Roblin U.E., David Roblin, 1788-1867 and wife Mary Rowe, issue five children:

Most of David Roblin's descendants live in the townships of Thurlow and Sidney this 1972.

I don't doubt many of you readers who have followed the Roblin family record will say how confusing with all the similar names, but if you had attempted to put together many of the different articles you find on the Roblins in print, it would seem about impossible to line it up as in so many cases we found very few dates of birth and death. If I may say again, you cannot do a genealogy of a family unless their dates can be found. As you will note, at the first arrivals in Adolphustown we have Owen Roblin Sr., U.E., Owen Jr. and Owen P. Roblin along with Philip Roblin Sr., U.E. and Philip Jr. and John, son of Phillip Sr. U.E. and coming in a short time later, John Roblin the pioneer or (John shot in the knee) with his sons, John and Owen (one eyed) and so on down in the generations, of which we have a very good record. We have tried our best to make this as accurate as we could from Bibles, memorial stones, family records and finally the Public Archives, Ottawa.

With the very necessary help of my good wife this research has covered several years, many miles, many interviews with many very interesting descendants of the Roblin family of which I am proud to be a descendant.

—C. Loral R. Wannamaker.

still available to help meet the costs of staging the competition. Continued advertising should not present a problem, as $170 was pledged for this purpose. Jay Hepburn of Redco Cannery generously pledged $100.

CORRECT PROBLEMS

Now that it had been decided that the races would be held the next matter at hand would be to try to eliminate mistakes that were made the first time.

There was a lack of manpower at the gates and possibly insufficient parking facilities. Both these situations are being remedied, with more people working the gates and possibly a radio system will be used so manpower can be shifted around as needed. Allotment of cars to parking areas will be more regulated to allow a greater number of vehicles to park in the area, as well as more grounds becoming available for this purpose; land to be cleared and sod put down so there will be no problem.

Due to bad weather, many people skidded off the drive, tearing up the lawn. This area will be worked over; levelled, with rye planted to insure firmness of the ground.

PASS PROBLEM

It seems that a major problem was people doing all they could to get in admission-free. Gord Callan sited one case in which he asked for admission and the fellow angrily drove right by, hitting the attendant with his fender. Passes were not issued the last time and it was suggested that a list be made up.

John said to this, "Passes can get out of hand. The press doesn't create problems, it's friends. When you have 100 pit passes they go like crazy. Mr. Cole said we had everything going for us. We had 90% of the gate and at the Harmsworth Races in the early 1960's only about 20 per cent of the gate was collected."

One attendant tried to charge Mr. Cole to get into his own farm and an hour later stopped his wife, so mistakes can be made.

It was suggested that someone sell tickets inside the gate, so there will be no holdup. Another problem to be remedied is that of boys handing out programs inside the gate, who were mistaken for ticket vendors. This resulted in a traffic tie-up.

ALL SIGNS ARE GO

More signs will be posted giving directions to Hayward Long Reach, cranes are available, people who served food are leaving the tent up for the next time, more power will be added to the loudspeakers, so this is shaping up to be an even bigger, better and louder meet than the previous one.

Many County Exhibitors At Quinte Exhibition

The Quinte Exhibition, this year marking its 151st Birthday, opened Wednesday, August 9 for four full days and nights — ending Sunday.

The colorful fair will be packed with activities throughout for old and young alike. Things to do vary from riding the wooden merry-go-round horses to betting on live models.

A newcomer in attendance this year is Conko, the friendly Conklin clown. In his bright red-white-and-black suit, Conko appears here and there spreading the infectious gaiety of Exhibition days around the city.

While the fair grounds and midway are open from 9 a.m. until midnight, the exhibits and displays are open from 1 p.m. on.

Friday is Consumers-Producers Day, highlighted by cattle shows in the afternoon and evening.

Paul Riddell and the Hell Drivers return to challenge local entrants in an International Demolition Derby.

Pari-mutuel betting on harness racing highlights Saturday's events. Preferred and invitation racing will take place at 8 and 11 p.m.

Sunday is Real Fun Value Day. Conklin and the bottlers of Coca-Cola get together to offer everyone a Real Fun Value Day. Using a special coupon picked up wherever a person buys Coke, people may get $3.25 worth of rides for only $1.50 plus three Coke bottle caps or ring pulls. It is also Family Day. Gates open at 1 p.m. for what will be the perfect setting for old-fashioned family reunions.

A first for Belleville, the Eastern Ontario Dairy Goat Breeders' Association is sponsoring a dairy goat show from 1 to 6 p.m.

In the evening, a Music Festival will take place in the grandstand at 7 and 9 p.m. Many well-known personalities will be featured in a program of gospel, folk, country and western music.

Throughout the Quinte Exhibition, persons from miles around will be attracted to the fair by a 150-foot high multi-coloured hot air balloon, which will be tethered to the fair grounds. The balloon measures 40 feet in diameter, and is equipped with high-intensity light to warn airplanes and to attract fairgoers.

Many Prince Edward County people are expected to be among the exhibitors and prize winners at the fair, which also includes several from the county on its board of directors and committee members.

These include Harold Caldwell, RR 2, Ameliasburgh; Lyle Vancleef, RR 1, Ameliasburgh; Bob Barber, RR 7, Belleville; Chris Lockyer, RR 1, Picton; Roger Elliott, RR 1, Bloomfield; Tom Heath, Picton; Cam Wannamaker, RR 1, Consecon; and Laverne Way, RR 2, Milford.

Memorial Service At Black River

The annual memorial service in the Black River Chapel will be held this Sunday, August 13 at 11 a.m. Rev. Wesley Neclands will officiate at the service and Rev. M. Buttars, formerly of the Bloomfield charge and now retired, will be guest speaker. Organist will be Mrs. James Clarke of Milford and Mrs. Ian Bailsillie of South Bay will be soloist. Flowers can be placed at the graveside of loved ones in the old cemetery. All are invited to attend this memorial service.

RESIGNATION

Town Council Tuesday night accepted with regret the resignation of Neil G. Love as a member of the town's Committee of Adjustment. Mr. Love has served on the three-man appointed committee for some years. His resignation takes effect September 5.

cerned taxpayers have confronted the council on the matter. Tuesday evening, Mrs. Dorothy Haight, on behalf of a number of concerned taxpayers questioned council on the issue.

Mrs. Haight had been informed that council planned on paying for this road extension and she, as a taxpayer, was not willing to support such a decision. She explained that the road would be of benefit to one building, which would be situated outside the town limits so the town would not even receive taxes from it. She felt it is up to the developer to pay for such a road. She also pointed out that in November last, at which time she

Parking, Traffic

Still shaken by a surprise judgment by Provincial Judge J. L. Clendenning which could invalidate the town's parking bylaw, Picton Town Council Tuesday night ran into still other snags on parking and traffic problems.

A letter from the town Police Commission expressed serious concern "over the traffic and parking problems on Main Street."

The commission followed through with a recommendation "that some action be taken to provide off street parking on an adequate basis, and a shortening of the parking time on Main Street to accommodate people who are going in and out of stores, rather than allowing a long term parking on the street, which is certainly prevalent at the present time and which is possible within the time allowed on the meters."

Councillor William Lane agreed, "There is a problem."

Deputy-reeve James Bird said, "I share the commission's concern, but we did have shorter periods for a penny, and the merchants wanted the amount and time increased. Now they see it's not working so well . . ."

Councillor Harold McLoughlin doubted shorter times would help, but suggested that the traffic light at the intersection of Main and Ross Streets be controlled by police officers during the busy summer or other peak periods.

It was also pointed out that consideration is now being given to install meters on King Street and portions of Ross Street.

Sailors Reunite

by DIANE GRIMMON
Staff Reporter

Probably not in its history has Waupoos Island had so many visitors as last Sunday — more than 300! The occasion was a reunion for all those people who have, or had at one time or another, some connection with the Pathfinder since its launching in 1963.

The Pathfinder, a sail training ship operated by Toronto Brigantine Incorporated, a non-profit organization, has been using Waupoos Island as a base this summer.

There was plenty for the visitors to do on the Island Sunday. After registering they could tour the facilities, some of which housed displays, numerous 'Brig' pictures, a nautical art show, antique ship's instruments and even a slide presentation.

SAIL ON BAY

Adventurous minded visitors were invited to go for a short sail on the Pathfinder, Trident, Pilot, Shallop or the Mirror Dinghy. Others just took advantage of the occasion to renew old acquaintances and make new friends.

Many stayed for the evening banquet, better described as a feast.

After the meal, Graham Taylor, President of Toronto Brigantine Incorporated (TBI) spoke of the organization and how it had developed in its nine years of operation. He described the facilities at Waupoos Island as being "tremendous". TBI is considering making the Island a permanent base for its summer program.

Mr. Taylor talked about expanding training programs which would include the eventual construction of several more brigantines as well as many smaller boats. At the present

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Enclosed you will please find the reply from N. B. and it would seem favourable to William Hudgin.

As I mentioned perhaps before, the family story says that they could find little success on the land in N. B. so decided to come to U. C. They were offered land north of Toronto but rejected that as they wanted to be near the water, and then they accepted a grant of 300 acres at South Bay in Prince Edward.

I have come no nearer the Roblin solution yet as I have not had opportunity of working on the problem. Surely A. C. Osborn, G. H. Setlor and the Roblins. However I expect to acquire one soon as Mr. Roblin of Picton has one.

I hope we have straightened out some of the Hudgin problems anyhow. Your interest in the stories of the U. E. L. people is very fine and may do much toward getting much of our history that is fast vanishing into the distant past.

Sincerely,
G. F. Osborne.

Joseph Foster knew whereof they spoke. I am almost resigned to the belief that Philips's wife was Jane Casey and not Prudence Platt as Adolphus Roblin seemed to think. Adolphus told me of his immediate family - mother, father, brothers, son etc but was not sure of his grandmother until I suggested Prudence Platt and that seemed to be it. However he may recall differently. Father told me recently that R. P. Roblin (once Premier of Manitoba) was a son of James Platt Roblin who, in turn, was a son of the Phil Roblin in question.

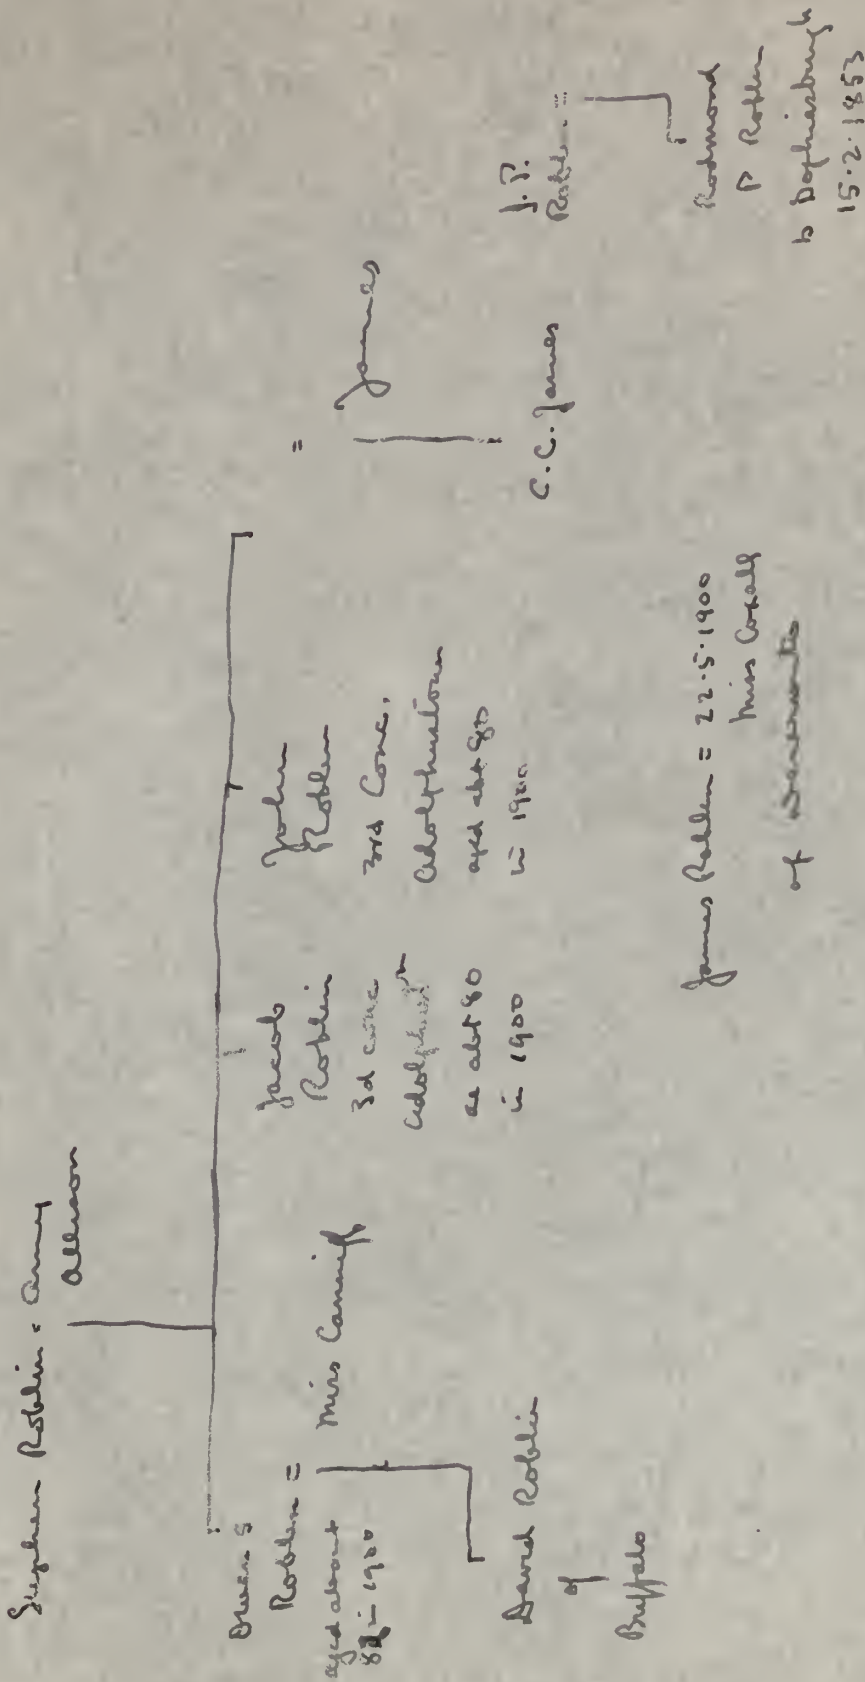

I have recently contacted R. C. Osborne of Penetanguishene who is a grandson of the A. C. Osborne who wrote the articles we have mentioned. Which brings me to mention that I have not a copy of the A. C. Osborne article on

Nancy Huffman, Daughter of William Reid Praying for lands as a Loyalist
Recommended for 200 acres as daughter of a U.E.

I can't explain why Nancy was twice recommended for 200 acres as the daughter of William Reed, but according to the Council minutes this occurred, once in 1801 and again in 1835.

Mr. Gordon F. Osborne,
R. R. #5, Manance, Ont.

Dear Mr. Osborne:

Many thanks for your recent letter regarding the Hudgin and Roblin families. Both are in a sad state, particularly the latter. I hope that a ~~bright~~ bright pair like yourselves can straighten out the mess. I shall be interested in the reply from New Brunswick.

With regard to the Roblin family, I have some information which you do not seem to possess. I shall copy it below.

The Diary of George Hill Detlor, whose wife was Maria, daughter of John Roblin (d. 1813) and Mary Moore, lists the children of John and Mary as: 1. William; 2. Ann; 3. Philip, marr. Jane Casey, d. 7 Feb., 1869 (the diary ~~also~~ of John C. Clark says that Jane (Casey) Roblin died 9 Feb., 1860, in her 60th year) (did Philip die 7 Feb., 1869?). They had 1 daughter and 4 sons (Philip & Jane); 4. Maria; 5. Matilda (drowned in 1819); 6. Frances; 7. John; 8. Jane; 9. David.

The U. E. L. Association, Bay of Quinte Branch, was given a manuscript written by Joseph Foster on the Foster-Roblin Family. Part of this is a copy of 'Sophiasburgh and the Roblin Families' by Alexander Campbell Osborne. Remember, you sent me one. At the same time I had received one years ago from David Vallean. On looking over Foster's MS, I note that his copy contains parts which do not appear in the other copies in my possession. On second thought, I wonder if you have a copy of that portion of A. C. Osborne's manuscript entitled 'Sophiasburgh and the Roblin Families.' In my copy it follows 'The Osbornes of Sophiasburgh.' If you have a copy, then look, see if it corresponds to mine. In paragraph 2, toward the latter end, there is a list of the children of Philip, Sr. My copy lists a daughter, after 'Meziah, who married Squire George Drury in Sophiasburgh.' This daughter is 'Elizabeth who married Joseph Foster of Camden.' My copy also has an addition at the end of paragraph 5. This paragraph (in Osborne's notes) ends with 'storehouses, shops and docks for convenience of shipping'. Foster's MS adds this: 'Philip Roblin Jr., also replaced the old red frame homestead with a large stone house and drive house. The grounds were enclosed by a massive stone wall. He married Elizabeth Ann Bogart of Adolphustown, six children were born, Robert Baldwin, Ormand Bogart, Harvey Price, Allen Douglas, Emma Augusta and Adolphus. Robert Baldwin married Sarah Elizabeth Mallory of Adolphustown, later moving to Stockton, California, where they lived until they passed away. Two daughters survive them, Mrs. Estelle Roblin Morris and Elsie Augusta Roblin. Ormand Bogart and Harvey Price went to California, living there but a few years when death claimed them. Emma Augusta married David B. Cole, two sons being born to them, Burward Belmont of Green Point and Hilliard Roblin of Stockton, California. Allen Douglas moved to Rochester where he died while yet a young man. Adolphus Roblin married Augusta Ruttan of Sophiasburgh. They had one son, Ormand Wilfrid, who now lives in Rochester, New York.'

I append the following skeleton charts, just to make the picture more complicated, and as an incentive to you in your attempts to clear up the Roblin confusion.

May every success attend your efforts!

Yours sincerely,

R. S. Napanee, Ont.,
Jan 20, 1957

Dear Dr. Burleigh.

I received your letter of some time ago and have found time and interest - plenty of the latter, to look up some items on the Hudgin and Roblin family. I am writing to-day to New Brunswick to see what I can find from there for U. E. L. records. I will let you know as soon as it comes.

"Mrs. Lois Proctor" as she calls herself is usually known as "Annie" to the rest of the family. As she ~~no~~ doubt has said, her father was Charles Hudgin and I believe her mother was Amanda Rose. My wife's Grandmother, Mrs. Esther Hudgin is a daughter of Adeline who married Archibald Hughes. So her mother was Adeline Hudgin and she married Michael Hudgin. I believe they were cousins. Another descendant is Mrs. Nathan Miller of Napanee (South) whose mother was Maria Hudgin who married Alva Hicks. From Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Hudgin I obtained the genealogy that I have of this family.

There is a daughter of Ada Hudgin (who married Chris Howder) in Prince Edward County who is supposed to have a history of the Hudgin family. I will try to find out more of this when I go up home again.

In your letter you spoke also of the Roblin family but attempts to find definite and clear lines of descent here have not been too good. As you say someone mixed up the early records and no one now living can straighten them. I spoke to Adolphus Roblin in Picton for some time and he, being over 90 years of age and still owning the High Shore property, gave me quite a bit of information on his branch of the family.

There is no doubt in my mind that Philip Roblin was one of the pioneers but how many of the Roblins are his descendants? Playter's "History of Methodism" says Philip Roblin died in 1788 and left his Widow Elizabeth and "four sons and four daughters"

In your letter you had a list of the sons and daughters of Loyalists applying for lands as found in Public Archives Toronto. Those sons and daughters of Philip the original U.E.L. (of this branch) would seem to be: Mary m. Garrison, Elizabeth m. Clapp, Ann (or Nancy) m. Ketcheson, Fanny m. Ruttan - this would seem to be the "four daughters" although possibly Keziah was another daughter. If "Keziah's" father died in 1788 she must have been quite an age to marry Drewry in 1820. Of the sons undoubtedly John was one and Adolphus Roblin of Picton seemed to be some help here. I thought Philip's widow had gone to Sophiasburgh as stated in Families of Bay of Quinte but this was not the case. It was John's widow who moved to Sophiasburgh in 1817 and it was John, the son of Philip, who died in 1813. Adolphus also said he thought the widow's name was Mary Moore and if that is the case then George Will Detlois mother-in-law was the widow Roblin who went to Sophiasburgh. Can we get any evidence one way or another here?

John Roblin was 38<sup>or 39</sup> yrs of age when he died in 1813 so he was born in 1775 and it was his father who was hurt in the Revolutionary war. John was a strong methodist, was apparently the one elected to the Parliament for Upper Canada by the Midland District.

His brothers were David and Owen P. and probably Philip. Adolphus gave me a good start on his branch of the family but there are gaps in the rest. Also if we can get a bit more evidence ~~on~~ on "John Roblin" we can establish whether we are on the trail of one or two John Roblins. If there is just one we can straighten out a good part of things quite easily. Adolphus states his Great Grandfather was John Roblin who married Mary (Moore?), his grandfather was Philip Roblin who married Prudence Platt, and his father was Philip Roblin who married a Bogart.

In the Upper Canada Book R of 8 Feb 1816 where Owen P Roblin, brother of Philip is stated as 41 years of age it would seem to be that this Owen was a brother of John and a son of Philip U.E.L. as he was evidently born about 1774-1775.

Personally I must come to the end of my rambling. I was sorry to be unable to make the Jan. 2 meeting but possibly will take a drive down Bath way to see you some day. If you are past this way stop and see us.

Best wishes.

G. F. Osborn.

P.S.

I have just noticed in your letter you state that Uetlor's father-in-law was the John Roblin who died in 1813. This would appear to settle things, yet his son Philip J. of Ameliasburgh married Jane Casey whereas Adolphus says his Grandfather Philip was the son of John and this is the Philip who married Prudence Platt.

You say Levi drew 200 acres as son of Philip U.E. but this Philip could have been John's brother.

Bath, Ontario, 24 Dec., 1956.

Mr. Gordon F. Osborne, U.E.,
R. R. #5, Wapaneer, Ont.

Dear Mr. Osborne:

Many thanks to you and your wife for family charts. You are evidently of the same mind as myself. I like to know about all my ancestors, both male and female. And I often wonder from which of them I inherited my yen to delve into the past.

On looking over Mrs. Osborne's chart I note several things of interest. One is re: the Hudgins. I have had an application from a Mrs. Lois Proctor, R. R. 3, Pic'cn. I am holding it pending further information because she claims descent from William Hudgin, a Loyalist who settled in New Brunswick and who eventually settled in Prince Edward County. Her application states that he (William) was born in Virginia. He was brought to N. B. as a baby. His father was William Hudgin U. E. L. She goes on to state that she had a letter saying that he was 'resident of the British Colonies, served during the revolution and moved to N. B. Certified by Wm. Lee and approved by His Excellency the Governor General, Feb. 26, 1844.' I wrote to Archives, Toronto, for information on Hudgin family. The reply was nil. I then wrote to Ottawa, Public Archives. This is their reply:

In reply, I wish to say that a copy of a list of Loyalists who petitioned for or received grants of land in New Brunswick in 1783 contains the name of William Hudgens. The original of that list is likely to be found in the Provincial Archives, at Fredericton, N. B. There is also, on file, a petition from William Hudgin for half of lot 8, concession 2, Fredericksburgh, Upper Canada. The petition is dated 1818 and Hudgin is described as a late sergeant in the Queen's Rangers, 1779-1783.

If you consider the matter worth following up, you might, among other things, write to Fredericton for further information. I have not furnished this news to Mrs. Proctor as yet, mainly because I did not wish to ask such a leading question as to whether or not her ancestor ever drew land in Fredericksburgh. A person might say yes on suspicion, which is not enough to clinch the argument. So, if you wish another ancestor U.E., and if you wish to help Mrs. Proctor, you have a good opportunity.

There is something wrong with the early Roblin generations, and Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte has a great deal to do with the confusion. I am of the opinion that the Roblins who are U. E. should get their heads together and straighten out the mess. To begin with, the Madding and Papers (Public Archives, Ottawa) give the following:

The Undermentioned Refugee Loyalists lately arrived from New York Acknowledge Receipt of Clothing.      Sorel, 19 Nov., 1783.

	man	wife	children
			male	6
Philip Roblin	1	1	1	2
Owen Roblin	1	0	1	0

(signed) Philip Roblin.

General Return of Refugee Loyalists Excluded from the Station and Latched.      (undated, but after 19 Nov., 1783*)

	man	wife	12	6-12	6	12	6-12	6	2
Philip Roblin	1	1	1	2	0	0	0	0	carpenter
Owen Roblin	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	blacksmith
Philip Roblin	1	1	3	0	0	2	man & 3 boys	on their land

Returned Troops 2 Loyalists Settled in Township 40 (Cataqui) or 5 Oct., 1784

Then, when we come to the U. E. List, published in 1884, we have Roblin, John	Adolphustown	Son of Philip, L.B.A. 1794	200 acres.

"	Owen P.	do	Son of Owen, Senr., is 21 years of age. L.B.M. 1793 200 acres.
"	Owen Senr.	do	Loyalist, L.B.M. 1793--unassigned L.B. Certificate states U. E. P.L.1786--A. McL. Gen'l Mالدinand 200, entitled to 700 acres.
"	Owen Junr.	do	Son of Philip.
"	Philip	do	Gov'r Hamilton, 200; Loyalist A.McL. P.L.1786.
"	Stephen	Soph. & Amelias	Served in Major Ward's Block-house--information, H. Clark.

A U. E. List by Townships, which is in the Public Archives, taken in sessions of the Court in 1796, when each man had to appear and make his claim to title of U. E., lists all those in the regular U. E. List, except Owen, Junr., which, to my mind indicates that he, Owen Jr., was not old enough to appear.

When we turn to the Adolphustown census, which was published by C. C. James for the Dept. of Agriculture a number of years ago (copies can be found across the country) we find mention of Owen Sr. for 1794 only; Owen Jr from 1794 to 1822; John from 1794 (wife and 1 child) to 1812. This is followed (if I am correct) by Mary Roblin, which might indicate that this John's wife was Mary; and in 1820 by W. M. Roblin. There should be a copy of this book in the Napanee Library.

A list of sons and daughters of Loyalists applying for lands as such is to be found in the Public Archives, Toronto. Those found under Roblin are:

Roblin, Philip, of Adolphustown
dau. Mary, mar. Harvell Garrison, of Fredericksburgh	mar. Harvell Garrison she drew 200 acres by order-in Council 8 June 1798
dau. Elizabeth, mar. Benjamin Clapp, of Fredericksburgh	on 6 April 1803      O.C. 21 Jan. 1806.

son Philip J., of Ameliasburg, mar. Jane Casey	ditto son William M., of Fredericksburg, mar. Catharine Detlor	ditto son John, of Richmond, mar. Mary Kimmerly	ditto

George Hill Detlor's Diary gives a list of the children of this John Roblin, the one who died in 1813, his father-in-law. In addition to the children noted above he adds these:

1. Matilda, drowned in the 1819 Hay Day tragedy.
2. Jane, married Andrew Davis.

[The text on this page is extremely faint and illegible. It appears to be a handwritten document, possibly a letter or a journal entry, covering the entire page area.]

3. Frances, married Isaac Fraser on 31 May, 1823, died ~~22~~ Oct. 1823.
4. David, or Daniel, died 1 Mar. 1863.

In the Upper Canada Land Book 'R', of 8 Feb., 1816, is the following:

Owen P. Roblin, brother of Philip, is now 41 years of age, has a wife and 8 children. Has had 200 acres of land as U. E.

Strangely enough, Pioneer Life on the Bay of Quinte tells the story that John Roblin, whose wife was Elizabeth Moore, and his brother Stephen were attacked by rebels and John was maimed by them and taken prisoner and treated in a rebel hospital. On the other hand, Joseph Foster, a member of Bay of Quinte Branch U. E. L., has furnished me with some notes on the Roblin family. One of these reads:

John Roblin died soon after (1784) from a wound in his knee. His widow and family moved to Sophiasburg in 1817. . . . John Roblin served in the War of 1812, though permanently crippled and died on Feb. 28, 1813, in his thirty ninth year. He was buried in the cemetery across the road from the Old Bay Bay Methodist Church, in which he served as a Local Preacher. . . . In September, 1947, Mr. C. H. J. Snider, a representative of the Toronto Evening Telegram, came to Adolphustown to study some of its historical background. During this survey, he visited the old Bay Bay Church and the cemetery across the way, where many of the Loyalists found their last resting place. He found that all the original gravestones had fallen over and covered with grass. The edge of one stone projected a little above the surface and after the accumulation of grass and earth was removed, the following inscription appeared:

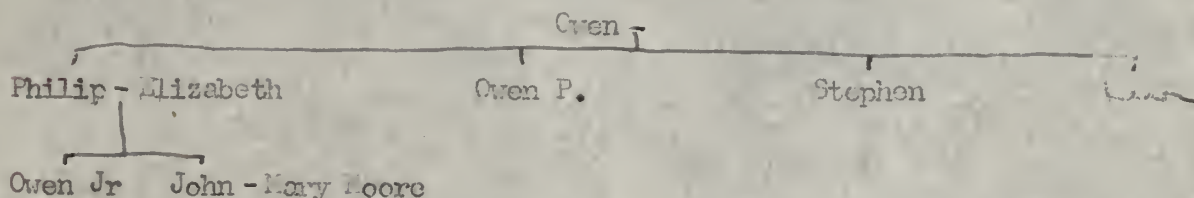

In Memory of John Roblin, who died Feb. 28, 1813, aged 38 years, 9 months and 26 days.

From the above it will be seen that John Roblin, who died in 1813, and who was a prisoner of the rebels and received a wound in the knee in consequence, was born in 1774. If these two Johns are the same person, then he was a soldier of six years of age (in 1780).

Moreover, Pioneer Life says that Elizabeth Moore was wife of John Roblin who died in 1813. Detlor's Diary says (and remember that Detlor married John's daughter) that she was Mary, daughter of William Moore, U. E.

From all this I assume that the man who related in Pioneer Life all the stories told to him by the Roblins mixed up two generations.

Could the following be near the truth?

All this is food for thought and warrants careful consideration.

Seasons Greetings!

Yours sincerely

H. C. Durleigh

P.S.

You will note that I have drawn 200 acres as son of Philip, U. E., and that he is not listed as son of John who died 28 Feb 1813

Dr. H. C. Burleigh,
Bath, Ont..

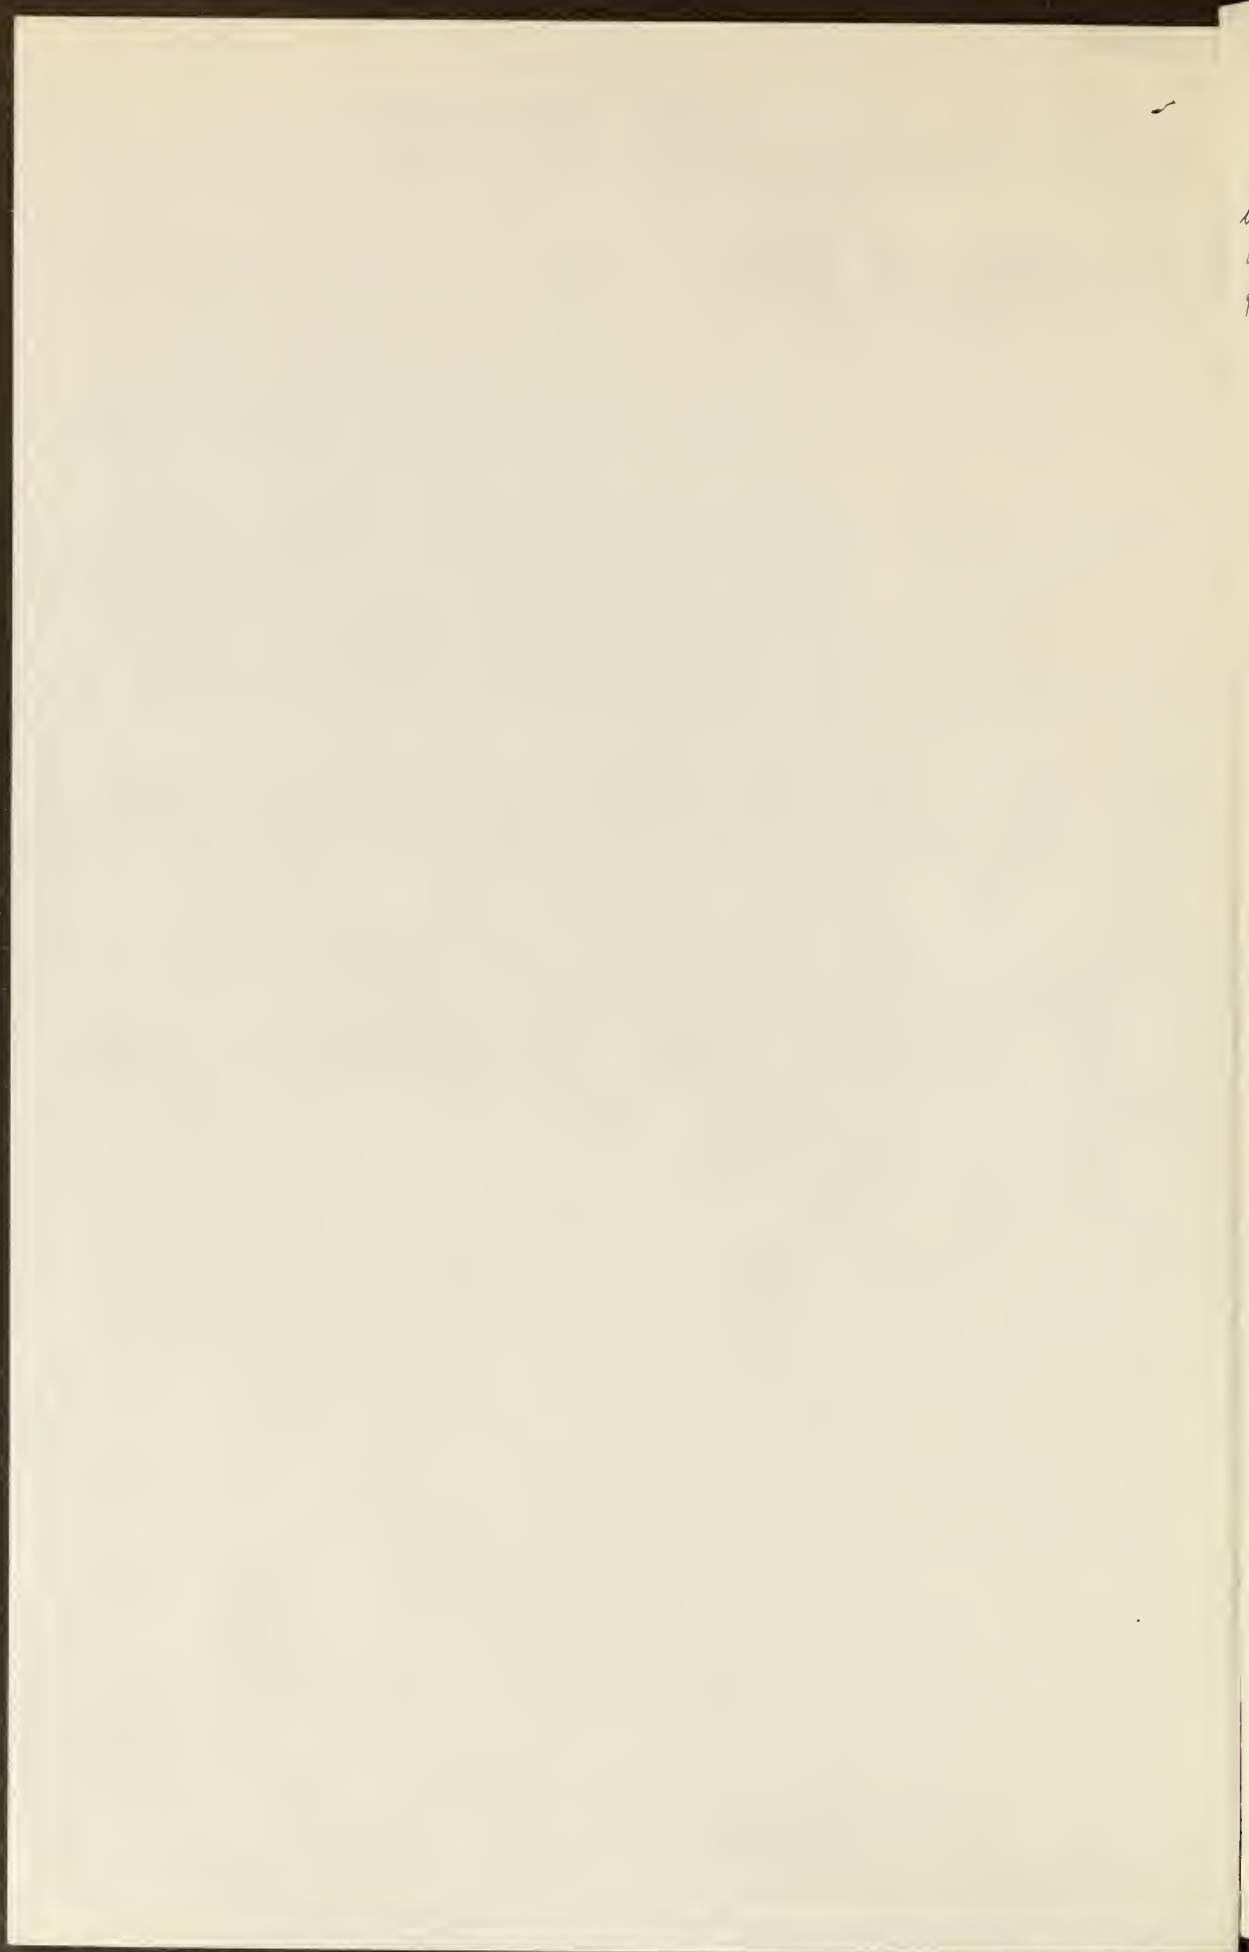

Dear Sir:

Many thanks for your letter of Dec 10.
We are sorry to have caused you any trouble, as of course we made an error and wrote "Archibald" when we should have written "Alexander" as the father of Elizabeth Campbell who married Hildebrand Vallean.

Enclosed please find a genealogy (of sorts) of my ancestors and of my husband's family.
In my genealogy I have shown the Hughes & the Harrisons' through my mother & in my husband's ancestors laid claim to all the U.E. L's that I can.

I inquired at the Archives in Ottawa and received a letter with this statement
"The name Nathaniel Osborne, labourer, from Vermont, appears in a 'Return of Royal Rangers, Company of Pensioners (Ca. 1783)' This would be at a time when Nathaniel was 20 years of age

I also through my husband's father learned that our land claim in Sophiasburg was granted to James Osborne and the date given by the registry office was 1802.

We expect to be at the meeting of the Bay of Quinte Branch U. E. L. in Picton on Jan. 2.

Thank you for your kind interest.

Yours Sincerely.

Finds Life At 101 Nice, But Trifle Long

Dec. 13, 1949

PICTON — One hundred and one years ago, on Dec. 14, Mrs. Mary Howe was born at Roblins Mills, Prince Edward County. Tomorrow, she will be feted by her friends and neighbors as she marks another birthday.

This grand old lady is beloved by all who know her. "All of her neighbors love her for she always looks for the best in everyone," a neighbor commented.

"Life is nice," she says, "but a trifle too long. There is nothing much to look forward to, just the good times of the past to look back at."

Mrs. Howe sees nothing unusual in the fact that she is enjoying good health at the age of 101. She can walk around the house; her eyesight is excellent, and her hearing unimpaired. She is a witty conversationalist and her cheerful disposition makes it a pleasure to visit her.

Of modern styles she does not disapprove and she sees nothing wrong in the use of lipstick, adding hastily, "Of course I do not use it." She looks forward to receiving her favorite newspaper. "I have my afternoon nap and sleep all night as well. I wake from my nap around four o'clock and then read for some time."

A cousin of the late Sir Rodmond Roblin, one-time Premier of Manitoba, she makes her home with her daughter, Miss Muriel Howe, in the village of Consecon. Her husband, Daniel E. Howe died 32 years ago.

Mrs. Howe was born at Roblins Mills and for the past 30 years she has resided in Consecon. All her life has been spent in Prince Edward County.

ROBLINS.---

The Roblin family is extensively and favorably known in Upper Canada, especially in the bay region. They, although numerous, have sprung from a common ancestry. Originally of English or Welsh nativity; at the commencement of the rebellion they were found dwelling in New York, and New Jersey. As a result of the Revolution, four branches of the Roblin family came to Canada, two of whom, John and Stephen were brothers.

John Roblin lived in New Jersey, he took no part in the contest, but his sympathies were doubtless with the Loyalists. One day, he was sitting in the door-way, when a scouting party fired upon the house as they approached. Some fourteen shots were fired. This was done without any warning, the house being inhabited by a private family. John Roblin was wounded in the knee. The party entered the house and completely ransacked it, searching for valuables; not satisfied with what they found, they demanded where the money was; John's brother, Stephen, was suspended by his thumbs to a tree with the view of forcing him to tell where the money was concealed. John, although wounded, was stripped almost naked. The ruffians, who did all this under the name of "Liberty," destroyed what they could not carry; and flour, furniture, everything in fact, was strewn about and broken. One of the party put his bayoneted musket to the breast of Mrs. Roblin, and dared her to call George her king. She fearlessly replied, he once was, why not now. The demon was pulling the trigger, when a more human comrade knocked the weapon aside. The rebels were near by under Washington, and this was a regular detailed foraging party. John Roblin was afterward placed in the rebel hospital, but the doctor was unnecessarily cruel, and so maltreated him, that he became a life-long cripple. The family came into the rebel camp, and Mrs. Roblin complained to General Washington of the conduct of his men. He had her look among the men, and promised to punish any she said had been among the party. But of course they kept out of the way.

The Roblins settled originally in Adolphustown, John Roblin, died, and and his widow, with the family, removed to Sophiasburgh, where she bought 100 acres of land for $25, and paid for it by weaving. She likewise cut down trees and made her hut.
